INTERNATIONAL BROKERAGE EVENT

 FLASH PRESENTATION

- Exploring the future of government
- Magdalena Kuenkel & Amy Noonan
- Centre for Public Impact

Our project idea

Objective

To assess what public sector innovation means today and how it can be designed in a citizen centric way

To explore models of public sector change that have embedded new practices that achieve better outcomes for citizens at a systematic level

To develop a strong evidence-base and associated learning programmes that focus on the impact of innovation for citizens

About us

- A global foundation aiming to help governments achieve better outcomes for citizens
- Extensive research experience in the context of policy effectiveness, government legitimacy and now keen to explore the future of government

Topic

We are looking to form a consortium with like-minded organisations who can help explore, describe and promote a future model of government that enables the frontline and encourages innovation from within trust, legitimacy, citizen/government relationship, policy effectiveness, enablement

What we are good at

- Building international networks across different communities within and outside of government to exchange experiences and promote best practices
- Developing practical tools for policymakers that leverage research and inspire change

Who we are looking for

- Academic / private sector partners outside of Switzerland with research expertise that complement our practical approach and way of working
- Organisations with experience of H2020, particularly with the delivery of "Coordination and support actions"

H2020 Topic: GOVERNANCE-18-2019: Innovation in government - building an agile and citizen centric public sector
