

Better health and care

Assessments, interventions and pathways for improved health outcomes in patients with multimorbidity

Are Hugo Pripp

OsloMet – Oslo Metropolitan University

Organization

#H2020PartnerHealth

- The research group Ageing, Health and Welfare, Faculty of Health Sciences
- OsloMet – Oslo Metropolitan University
- One of Norway's largest public universities.
  - OsloMet mission: Deliver knowledge to solve the future challenges of the welfare society.
- OsloMet EU projects: 24 (7 as coordinator)

Our project idea / expertise

- Assessments, interventions and pathways for improved health outcomes in patients with multimorbidity
  - SC1-BHC-24-2020: Healthcare interventions for the management of the elderly multimorbid patient
- Work packages

Our project idea / expertise

#H2020PartnerHealth

- Research focus: Implications of an ageing society - emphasis on translation of research into policy-making decisions
- Current consortium / collaborators
  - Research Unit, Alto Deba Integrated Health, Spain
  - Center for Clinical Research and Prevention, Copenhagen, Denmark
  - Imperial College London
  - Università Cattolica, Milan / The Joint Action CHRODIS+
- Seeking partners
  - Decision making / prediction
  - Health care interventions
  - Commercialization in health care

Contact details

#H2020PartnerHealth

- Professor Astrid Bergland
- The research group Ageing, Health and Welfare and Faculty of Health Sciences
- OsloMet – Oslo Metropolitan University
- Phone: +47 452 72 760 / +47 67 23 63 09
- E-mail: Astrid.Bergland@oslomet.no