Our project idea

It's Prodigy is an innovative startup born in Italy and growing internationally.

Our areas of competence are Fintech, big data, business development, marketing and digitization.

We are experts in Industry 4.0 culture, processes and technologies and we create next generation digital solutions for medium-large companies.

- We are a company with 23 people, all with Master degrees and senior background experience.
We are an enthusiastic startup, eager for new market opportunities.
We are passionate about what we do and we believe we can help many companies to rise after this difficult year.
- Keywords: Business Development, Digital Innovation, Big Data, Artificial Intelligence, Fintech

- We are always looking for bi-directional partnerships and resellers in order to increase our worldwide network and enrich our offers.
- We are currently offering our services to big companies such as Fastweb, Hays, Vargroup, Edenred, Soprasteria and we are partners with Milan Chamber of Commerce, InnovUp, Leyton and ALDhawi Group.
- We especially focus on B2B partnership, including corporates, middle and big companies and startups.
