Travel and Accommodations Arrangements

About the event

The Annual General Meeting (AGM) of NECSTouR 2021 will be hosted by Tirol from 21 to 24 September 2021 in Alpbach.

Considering the current uncertain travel situation a virtual participation will also be possible.

The AGM will gather all the NECSTouR members to renew of Executive Committee and pave the way for our new tourism agenda, ensuring the best future for our network and supporting the recovery of our sector and its long-term transformation towards a more sustainable, digital, and resilient ecosystem.

Furthermore, Tirol will also offer networking moments, thematic debates and for participants on-site a study visits to a CLAR Region (Clear Alpine Region) will be organized.

The participation from 21.-24.september is for NECSTouR members only, with one exception:

On September 23rd , the Public Thematic Conference will be open for further participants. Tirol will invite it's stakeholders to participate and join the public thematic conference as well as the matching event.

Good to know

Information about the Coronavirus in Tirol:

Tirol's hospitality locations, accommodation providers and leisure attractions are open, with certain rules and restrictions in place.

Thanks to the improving Coronavirus situation it is now significantly easier to travel to and from Austria.

Weather in Tirol

Tirol is situated in the alps, in september (autumn) we expect a temperature range between 8-22 degree celsius during the day. Rainfall is moderate and normally we do not expect a lot of rainy days in september.

Here you will find the daily forecast for the weather in Tirol.

Information about the Alpbach tourism region

The village of Alpbach (975 m above sealevel) has been the venue for the "European Forum Alpbach" since 1945. The Alpbachtal tourism region lies at the heart of the Tyrol. Framed by the rugged mountain peaks of the Rofan Range and the green grassy mountains of the Kitzbühel Alps, the region with its ten villages is a truly special gem. Original farms, enchanting in summer with their colourful floral decorations, as well as rustic Alpine pastures and huts are part of the distinctive landscape.

Here you will find further information on Alpbach and the Alpbach tourism region.
